President's Message

Heritage Fine Art Guild Members and Friends:

Season's Greetings! Don't ask me how on earth it's possible we are already into December...!?! No wonder time is flying by though, with so many things going on right now. Both This is Colorado and our Members' only Online will be opening/launching next week. Be sure to spread the word far and wide on both—we are looking forward to a great turnout!

For those of you who missed our watercolor workshop with Bob Gray this past weekend, it was fun and informative, as always. Bob is such a gentle, generous teacher! On that note, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Bob once more for donating one of his framed paintings to benefit our Guild. Congratulations to the lucky winner of our impromptu raffle, Kim Gedeon, and a warm thank you to all who made a donation to enter the drawing! The funds will be allocated to community outreach, a Heritage program through which we have do such things as support ACC arts students with contributions to their study trips abroad.

For our upcoming Heritage Brunch this Saturday at Littleton ViewHouse , we already have a good number of RSVPs. If you haven't yet responded, don't worry, it's not too late! Just call or text me at 303-667-7638 (or email btdrury@q.com) before Friday, and I will be happy to add you to the list. Our holiday get-togethers and inexpensive, "bring-one-get-or-exchange-one" gift exchanges are always a good time. If you follow the ViewHouse link above, you can find out exactly where it is—and also where you can find free, easy parking on Alamo.

I hope you have a wonderful, creative Holiday Season, and look forward to seeing you at one of the upcoming events or else... in the New Year!

Cheers, and as always, get involved and keep painting... Beatrice
