President's Message

Dear Heritage Fine Art Guild Members and Friends:

Happy New Year to everyone... I hope your Holidays were peaceful and happy, and you are starting 2018 with renewed creative energy and enthusiasm!

If you haven't already seen it, I highly recommend visiting the "Her Paris" exhibit (still on view at DAM through Jan. 15). It is an extensive and diverse show, and what struck me—particularly on a second visit, when I spent more time taking in the art rather than studying all the background information—was the way it illustrates these women painters' struggles with finding their own voices under challenging and often repressive circumstances. I find it interesting that, even though we no longer face the same constraints, it is still so very difficult for all artists to overcome the obstacles, large and small, internal and external, that keep us from making art and finding our own unique and meaningful expression... But there's always hope! Heritage is here to help and support you with many and varied programs lined up for the Spring season. I look forward to seeing you at an upcoming workshop or monthly meeting and hope our group can contribute to you finding and further developing your own voice.

Best wishes for a creative and inspired 2018! And remember to get involved and keep painting...

Beatrice

Holiday Brunch

We had a great turnout for the Guild's holiday brunch on December 18 and filled two tables at the Egg and I. Lots of good food and good company!
