

Heritage Newsletter March 2021

March 10, 2021 Meeting Information

The meeting will be held via Zoom. The Board meeting begins at 6 pm. The general membership meeting starts at 7pm. However, you may join the call at any time because the call-in information is the same for both meetings. Zoom logon details will be sent to members by email shortly before the meeting.

March 10, 2021 Art Challenge

We will have another art challenge at our membership meeting on March 10. This time we ask you to choose any window in your home and paint what you see outside. This can be wide open to interpretation; from a realistic painting of what is there, to added elements that aren't actually in view, to a completely imaginary scene or a color field painting. If you are up for it, we'd like to hear about your inspiration for the painting and how you executed it.

Once your painting is done, please take a digital photo of it (background and unfinished edges cropped out is best) and prepare to share it on Zoom using the Share Screen function. If you prefer, you can send your picture to Patty Nash at nashpa@icloud.com and she will show it during the meeting. If neither of these options work for you, you are welcome to hold your painting up to your device camera during the meeting.

President's Message

Hello Heritage Members,

Looks like we've come to the one-year mark of when we first suspended in-person meetings, shows and workshops. Seems like a lifetime ago since we've become so accustomed to this new reality. The situation continues to improve though and by late spring I am hopeful we can resume some of our in-person activities like meetings and the annual Bemis show. Until then, we can stay optimistic and keep moving forward with our artistic journeys.

This month we'll have a number of creative activities to participate in including an art challenge on the 10th, a workshop on the 13th and an online show for members (entry deadline March 24). All of these are described in detail in this newsletter. Please think about joining one or more of these activities—we'd love to see what you've been working on! Mary kay has even more great workshops lined up for the spring so please check those out as well.

I'd like to thank Sue Connors and Phil Gustafson for volunteering to assist with our venue search for in-person shows. It's great to have the help and support of our members!

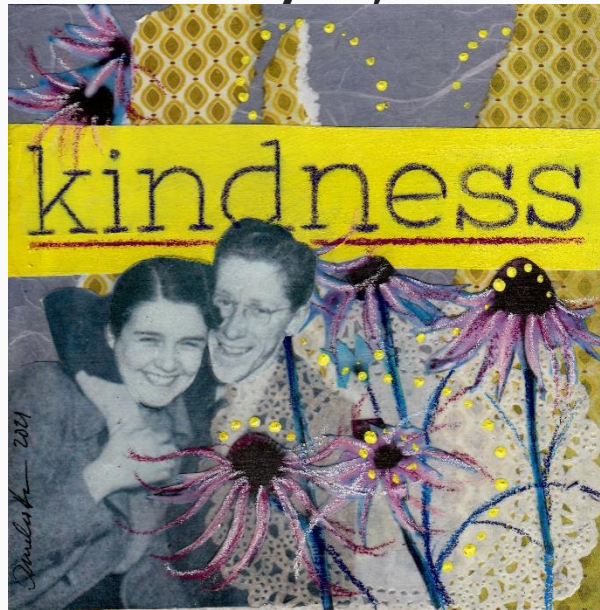

As the weather warms up, we'll also be thinking about some plein air get togethers so if you have suggestions for good spots to paint, please let us know. I'm sure we'll have to get past a few more snowy days first, but it won't be long before we can set up our easels outside.

Stay well and keep in touch with the Guild,

Patty Nash, President

February Highlights

Amelia Furman Workshop February 13, 2021

Thank you, Mary kay, the workshop on Saturday was wonderful! I really did enjoy myself and learned so much from Amelia. She is a natural teacher and it's evident how much she loves art and telling stories.

Thank you, Heidi Reed

It was a wonderful workshop! Amelia is a natural teacher and knows how to keep her students engaged. I would definitely attend another and will suggest it to others.

Thank you, Julie Midyett

Workshops

Brian Hubbell - "Let's Paint a Wonderful Landscape" via Zoom

Saturday, March 13, 2021 -- 9am - Noon

HFAG Member - $25

Non-HFAG Member - $30

Brian's drawing, cartooning, and painting began in early childhood, and led to commissioned artwork in his college years. He began showing pen and ink and charcoal sketches, acrylic and oil portraits and western paintings in galleries and businesses in central and southern Colorado. As part of his artistic endeavors, he also became a political cartoonist, having a lot of fun lampooning then noted politicians: Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, and others. His cartoons were published in regional periodicals and newspapers.

Laura Lein-Svencner - "Inspiration, Process and Collage" Workshop via Zoom

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, April 15-17, 2021 -- 9am - Noon

HFAG Member - $75 ($25x3)

Non-HFAG Member - $90 ($30x3)

We can find paper anywhere and we can also purchase paper to use in our collage artwork. Our preference to papers is very personal. This workshop will have us repurposing found papers and altering their surface. Creating a palette of papers to choose from and learning about color, texture, value, shapes, and other design elements. We may not even notice this aspect because we will be practicing the art of responding with our choices as we touch every part our palettes we created.

Each half day session will include a demo and time for everyone to work on their own collage palette. After our session time is over you will have the rest of the day to make more papers and coat them to be ready for the final day of assembling your collages with the Tack Iron method. We'll work with the acrylic glazing mediums in wonderful ways to add depth to your work.

Student will end up with a 12 x 12 collage ready to mat and frame.
