

Janet Nunn

About the Artist

The bright color and blending Janet uses, creates detail and feeling in her paintings. Capturing the Colorado landscape is one of her favorite compositions. There is so much to paint in Colorado from changing colors, varied landscape, and the great people. Janet uses Dr. Ph. Martin's Hydrus Liquid Watercolors.

This paint keeps the brightness and consistency in the paintings. Janet's paintings will be featured in Watercolor Artist in the February 2014 magazine. The books Splash 14 and 16 have paintings by Janet. And recently in 2017 the Spring issue of Rocky Mountain Gardening.

As an instructor, Janet enjoys teaching in a positive way. Guiding students to uncover their own style of painting while they learn many watercolor techniques. Here are links to Janet's YouTube Videos:

Colorful Cactus <https://youtu.be/rqe6tftYEzo>

Wave of Snow youtu.be/GfE2D62bMTE via @YouTube

Janet has produced, three, "How Do You Paint That" books of 41 step-by-step lessons in each book, available on her website:

www.janetnunnwatercolors.com.